The Doorway

As each passes through the way,
Let him think what these doors have held;
Let him see the work as it lies behind
And judge if he did it well;

Let his hear the words of teaching,
As they echo through the halls;
Let him stand upon the threshold—
Let him feel proud, secure, and tall.

Dedication

To Stanley M. Robinson, we, the Class of 1967, say "thank you". Thank you for your time, your effort, your help, your friendliness, and your genuine interest. To you, we dedicate our yearbook. May it symbolize our gratitude and respect. May it serve as an inspiration, showing you our spirit and our hopes. May it represent the beginning of many fulfilling years at Salem Classical and High School. May it make you happy.

Foreword

To the Class of 1967, a message—

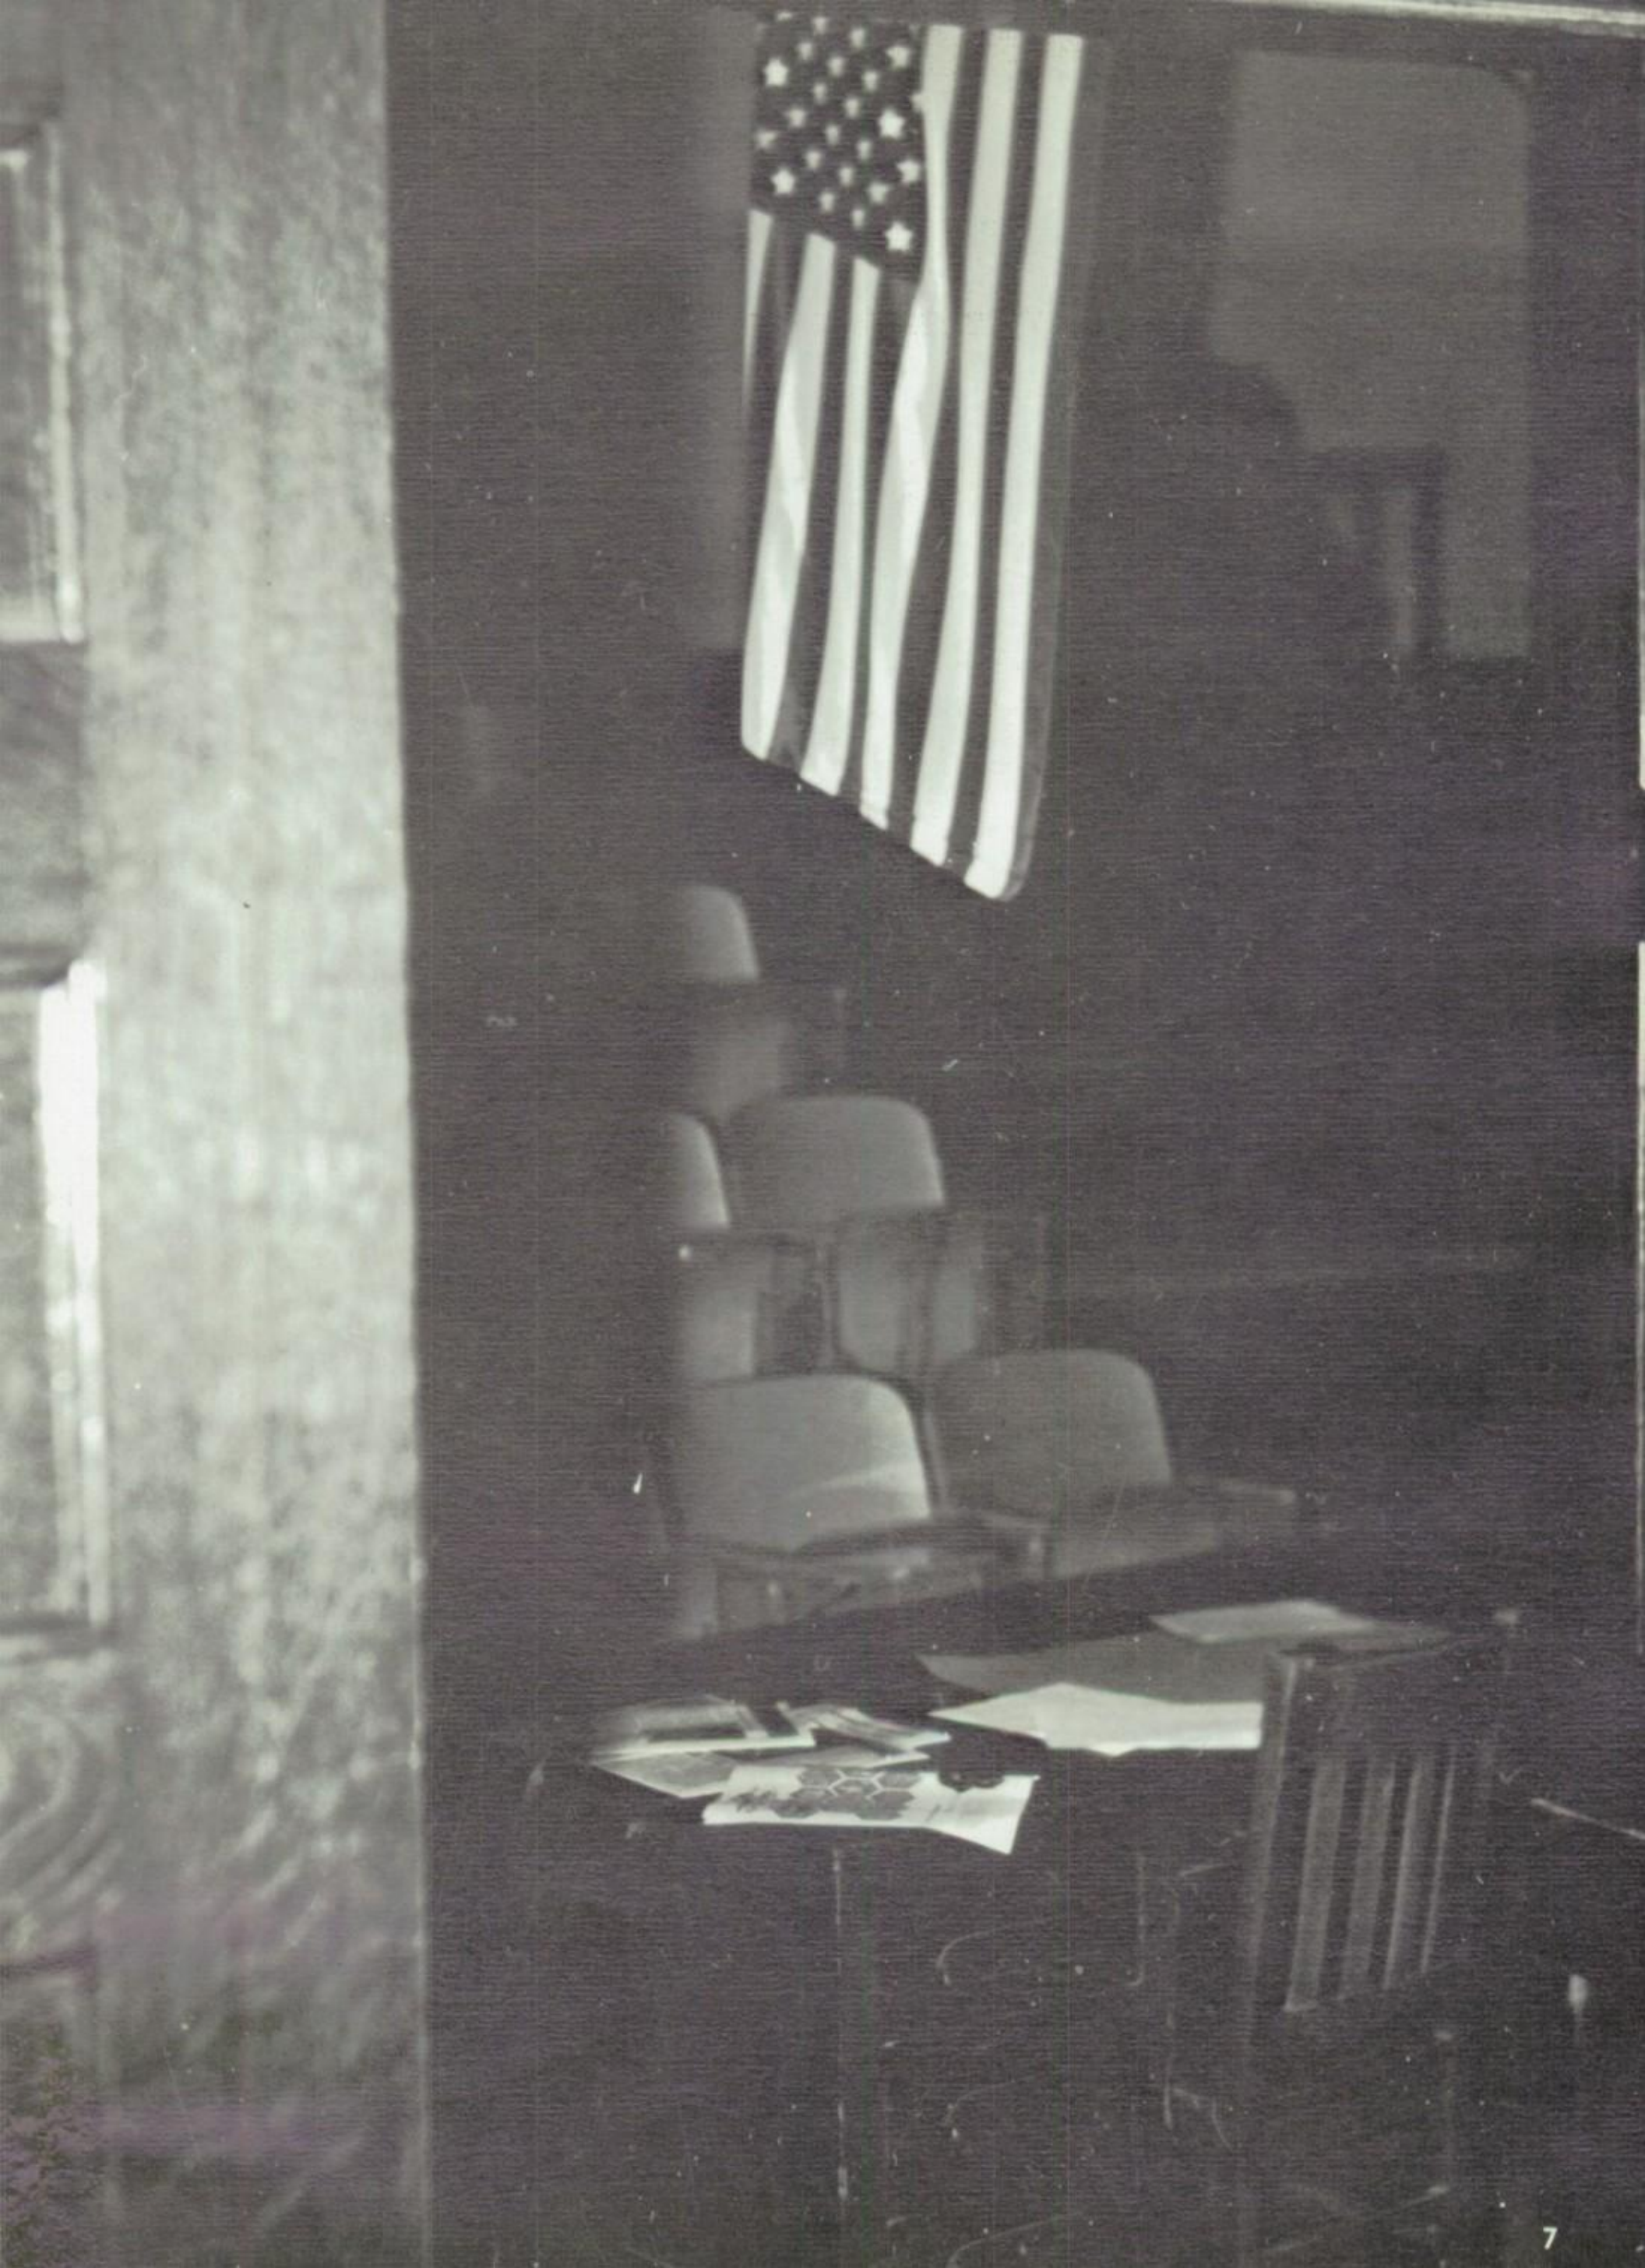

"Happiness is the only good.
The time to be happy is now.
The place to be happy is here.
The way to be happy is to make others so."

To everyone, thank you—

Yearbook staff, thank you for your hard work and never-ending enthusiasm.

Mrs. Madaline Nolan, Mr. Alfred Pasquale, Mr. Joseph Murphy, our advisors, special heartfelt thanks for your invaluable assistance and encouragement. Without you, the 1967 Witch would not have been possible.

Members of the Class of 1967, thank you for being you. So that you may remember our four, long wonderful, hard, fun-filled, important years together at Salem High School, we present to you the 1967 Witch, our yearbook. It is a book of living and learning. It is a book of friendships. It is a book of memories which will serve to make timeless our experiences at Salem High School. It is a book for you.

In Memoriam

Mr. Paul Porochniak

We record with deep sorrow the passing of Mr. Paul Porochniak, a man of strength and sensitivity. We appreciate the years of sincere and invaluable work with which he has helped to build our school. We admire the devotion with which he has guided many, and we find ourselves indebted to his superior character. Mr. Porochniak has been a friend and a gift to all—the school, the pupils, and humanity. The mark he has left at Salem High School we recognize as a light by which each of us may be guided.

Editorial

"Age, out of heart, impatient sighed:—'I ask what will the Future be?' Youth laughed contentedly, and cried:—'The future leave to me!' "—At this moment, to some of us the future may be vague, to others it may be sure. Nevertheless, we all have in ourselves the inherent quality of hope, for while older men dream dreams, younger men see visions. Whichever visions each of us may see, we shall strive for satisfaction. After all, satisfaction is the greatest ambition.

We are on the threshold of a new experience, ready to begin our world as adults. We are in this world at a time when we can do what no one has ever done before. That is what education means—to be able to do what one has never done before. Our education has helped prepare us to face this challenge; it has developed our individual personalities and the significance of our lives to ourselves and to others. We now realize that success is measured not only by material things, but also by personal satisfaction.

We look back to all our warm memories at Salem High School. We remember the difficult times as not being so difficult, and the happy times as being happier. We remember the aid and guidance of our teachers and parents. They have given us their love and encouragement and example. We will never forget the joys, the laughter, the unity, the pride . . . this is the class of 1967.

Your Administrators

Mr. Stanley Robinson Principal

Salem Classical and High School

Congratulations to the Class of 1967

You have reached a major milestone in your lives by earning a Salem High School diploma. You have persevered and been successful. Though your progress may not always go smoothly forward you will never lose the credit symbolized by your graduation. You will always have the memories so well depicted throughout this 1967 yearbook.

The Class of 1967 can never lose its place with me—it is number one! The sharing of one brief year together does not diminish the special place I will reserve for a class that has been so loyal, co-operative, and, above all, friendly.

Stanley Robinson

Mr. Joseph E. Murphy Vice Principal

One stage of your life has come to an end and your adult life is in the immediate offing. Your priceless high school days will not be fully appreciated until you have lived a few years in the world of "grownups".

We at Salem High School hope that we have helped to develop your latent ability to cope with the hard world of reality. Remember that your diploma will open many otherwise unattainable opportunities for you, but after the initial opening you must continue to work and work.

Good luck to all and may God bless all of you all of your lives.

Joseph E. Murphy

MR. JOHN M. CONWAY
Principal
Vocational High School

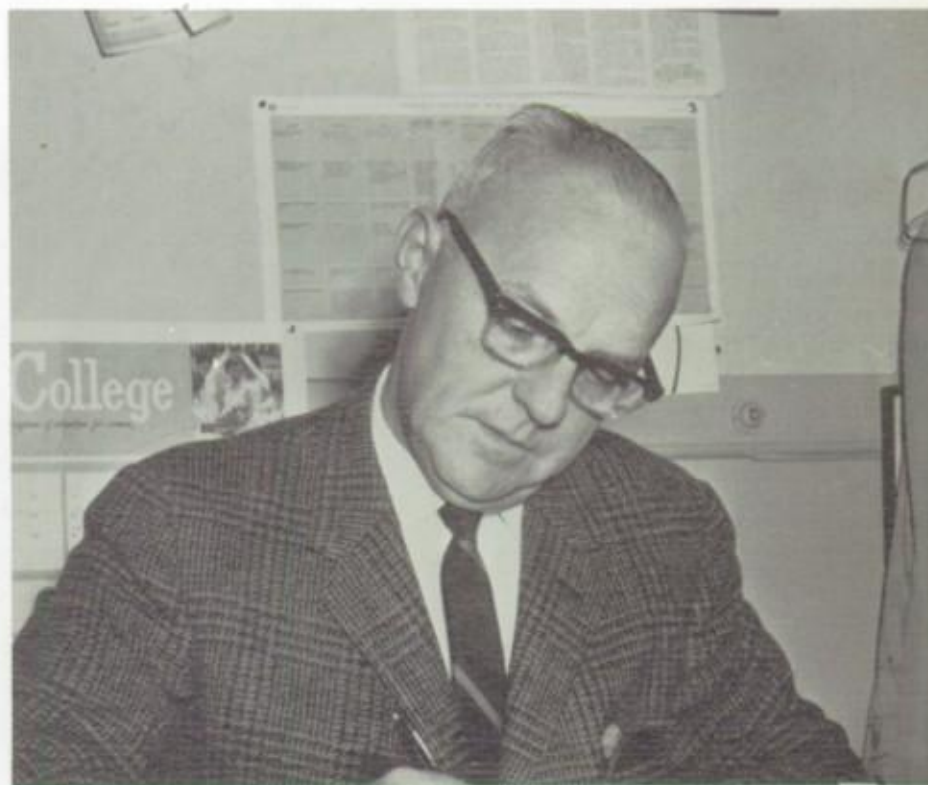

Sincere congratulations to the Class of 1967. May the coming years be favorable to all. Tremendous challenges are ahead. Meet them with confidence. It has been said that education is truly a chest of tools. Use them wisely and the future will be yours to enjoy.

John M. Conway

MR. PHILIP J. BROWN
Director of Guidance

My sincere congratulations to you, the members of the Class of 1967. You have shown during your years at Salem High School that you have been endowed with many God-given gifts: ability, integrity, loyalty, charity, courage, and faith in the future. Make the most of these attributes and you will contribute much to the welfare of your family, your community, and your country.

Philip J. Brown

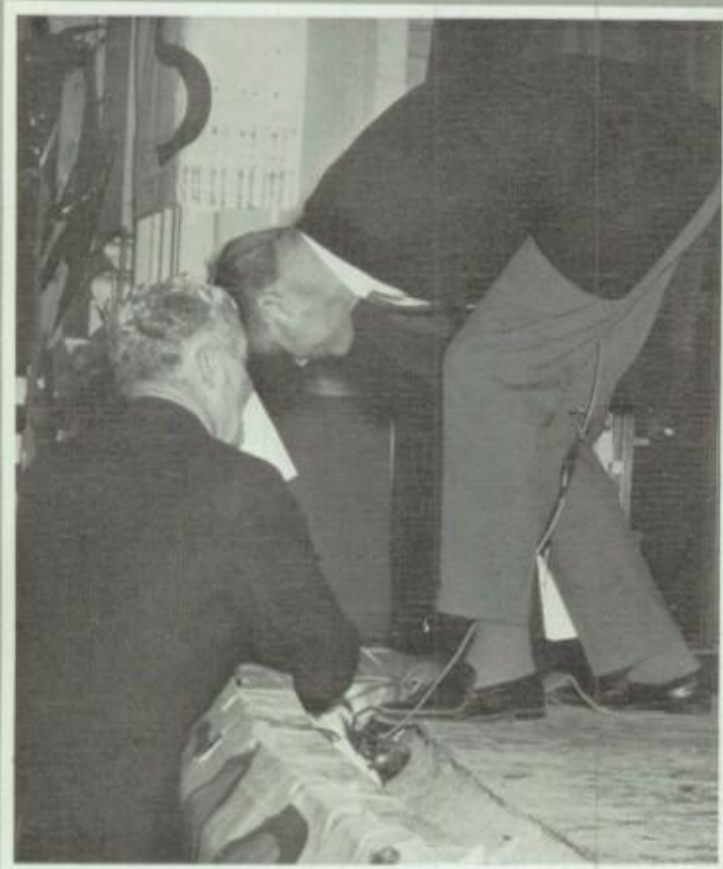

MR. LAWRENCE J. FITZPATRICK
Superintendent of Schools

I congratulate the splendid members of the Class of 1967 of Salem Classical and Vocational High Schools, and I wish each member of that excellent Class every deserved success and happiness in the future. I am hopeful that as many members of the Class as possible will take advantage of every opportunity to continue their education at institutions of higher learning.

To the faculty of Salem Classical and High School
"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Your influence, your encouragement, your guidance, your understanding, too, will "affect eternity." It is you who have given us knowledge, advice, confidence, and direction. It is you who have prepared us for the Future. The Future is ours, but the Future always reflects the Past. The Past is your teaching.

With sixty seniors, fabulous chaperones, and a beautiful city, the Senior Class trip had to be a success, and it certainly was! Everyone enjoyed the sights—the Capitol, the Lincoln Memorial, the Jefferson Memorial, Mount Vernon, the Wax Museum, Smithsonian Institute, the F. B. I. Bermuda—beautiful, sunny, scenic. Who could ever forget such an experience? During February, our football team was rewarded for hard work and magnificent games by a fabulous four days in Bermuda. Then, in April, the girls of the European Travel Club spent nine wonderful days there.

The people, the night clubs, the Italians, the flag at Fort St. Catherine, screen doors, rum swizzle parties—exciting times and now, happy memories . . .

Girls, don't forget your 3:00 curfew!

Class History

If you have ever tried to remember a certain some time, you know that it is difficult. You cannot relive past moments. You cannot remember so much that has happened. But, you can try. You will find that you remember with a feeling . . .

And how do you remember four years? So much was done, so much was hoped for . . . so much . . .

I remember one September morning in 1963. The day was rainy and cool. The building was large and strange. The people were new and many. The people formed our class, the class of 1967. The building was Salem High School, and the day was our first together as a class. This day was a beginning, a beginning to four years . . .

Our first year, we were "Itty-Bitty Freshmen". We were still young, small, shy, with "a lot of livin' and a lot of learnin' to do". We held our first school social event—the Freshman Frolic with music by Manuel's Black and Whites. That night and that year, strange faces became shy acquaintances and soon, everlasting friends.

As sophomores, we have become accustomed to the school, to the work, to the fun, to the people. The Sophomore Shindig proved to be a great time for all who attended. The year was another lap in our journey and another chapter in our book of memories.

And then, so soon, we were upperclassmen. We were juniors, and we realized that it was later than we thought. It was time to seriously consider the future. But, it was also time to make our class the greatest! We held elections, and under the leadership of Peter Gibson, John Walsh, Debbie Clay, and Susan Staniewicz, we succeeded. We almost won the trophy from the seniors as Color Day, and soon, at the New Ocean House, we held the Junior Prom, "Moonlight and Magic". Queen Carolyn LeBlanc and her court added to the magic. It was a beautiful night . . . It was a very good year . . .

But the best was yet to come. They now called us the "Mighty, Mighty Seniors", and we were thrilled. Election time, this year, brought these results: John Walsh, president; John Stanchfield, vice-president; Debbie Clay, secretary; and Susan Staniewicz, treasurer. Along with the officers, the Executive Board and the Class made this year the climax of our four years together. Remember Dink-Donk School, Konovalchex, and the deflating chest—we won the trophy at Color Day! Remember galloping horses and a cabin in the woods—this was Christmas vacation and our sleigh ride. Remember a fabulous night at the "Y"—this was our Splash Party. Remember the teachers playing basketball at Peabody High—it was fantastic! Remember a long bus ride, a boat trip along the Potomac, and Rands—this was the class trip to Washington D. C. Remember Bermuda Day—it was a "change of pace" and a financial boost for the class. Remember Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27—with the pregnant lady on the subway; our "wonder-girl", Donna O'Brien; Russell Dowd's cheese danish; and Dr. Kitchell and the "Midas Touch". Remember "Bells are Ringing" as "our show", because it was. Remember Senior Week—the Splash Party and the Bermuda Hop, and then, the Senior Banquet with the tears and laughter that come with memories . . .

And how do you remember four years? So much was done, so much was hoped for . . . so much . . .

I remember one June evening in 1967. It was June 9. The day was warm and bright and clear. The place was so familiar. The people were still many, but certainly, no longer strangers. This was our school, our class—our Graduation Day. Remember that night always, and be proud.

Soon, we made more memories. Remember our Senior Reception on June 14 at the Rolling Green Motor Inn in North Andover. Our Queen, Sharon O'Brien, and her court helped complete an elegant night. Thus, ended our Senior year.

And now, we have an end to our beginning, an end to our four years, and an end to a segment of our lives . . .

Try to remember. You will find that you remember with a feeling. And how do you remember four years? You cannot relive past moments, but it is great to try!

Student Council Officers

Front: P. Chouinard, C. Mooradian.
Rear: P. Gibson, D. Barbeau, A. Caruso

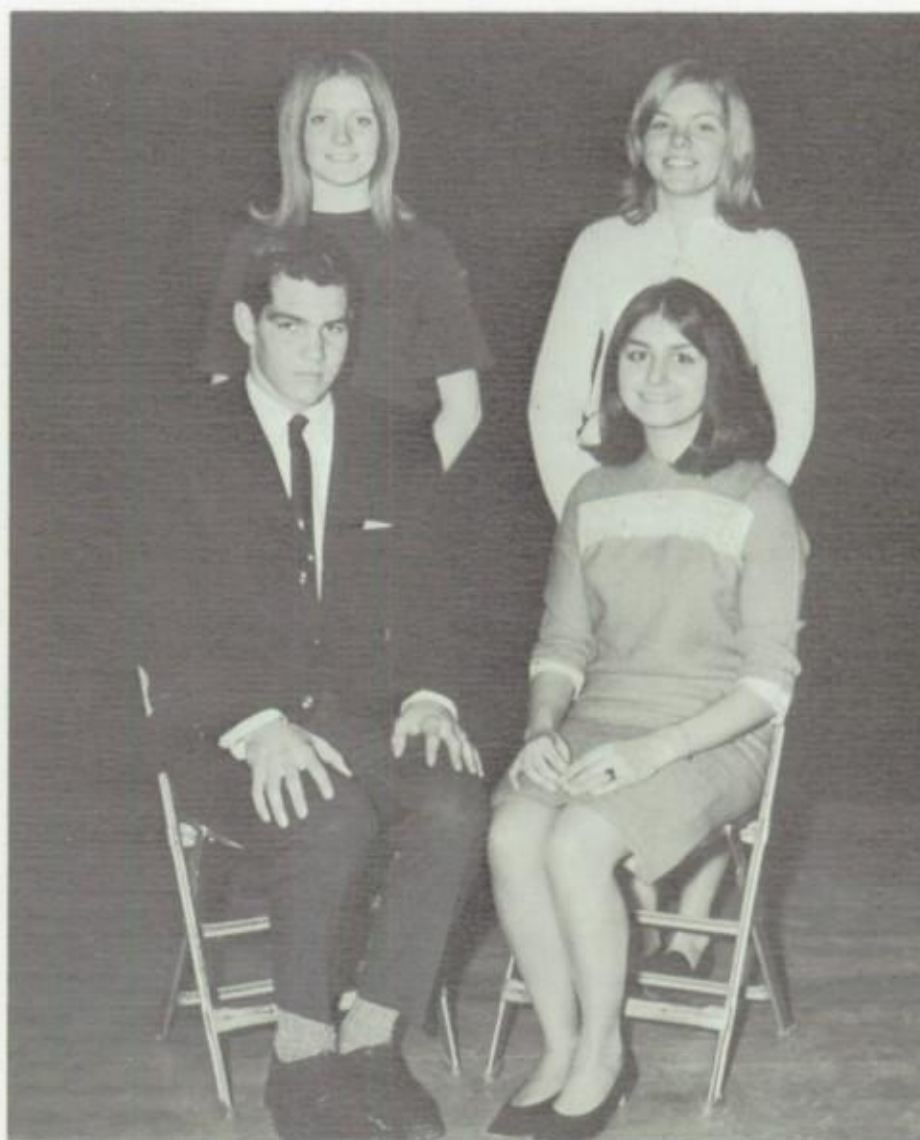

The student council, under the direction of Mr. Frank Nolan is an organization established to increase understanding between the student body and the administration. Various activities include: distributing letters of commendation to honor roll students, awarding trophies to athletic captains, sponsoring assemblies, and improving cafeteria conditions. The student council is comprised of five officers and two elected delegates from each homeroom. These representatives of the student body meet monthly with the principal to discuss school activities.

Junior Class Officers

Junior Class officers for this year were president, Thomas Lawnsby; vice-president, Janice Macheras; secretary, Carol Cook; treasurer, Theresa Chouinard.

The various activities of the Junior Class for this year were both numerous and exciting. It was the first junior class to ever have a splash party, and one where a considerable amount of profit was made. On the agenda also were a cake sale in April and the Prom in May, held at the Thompson Club in North Reading.

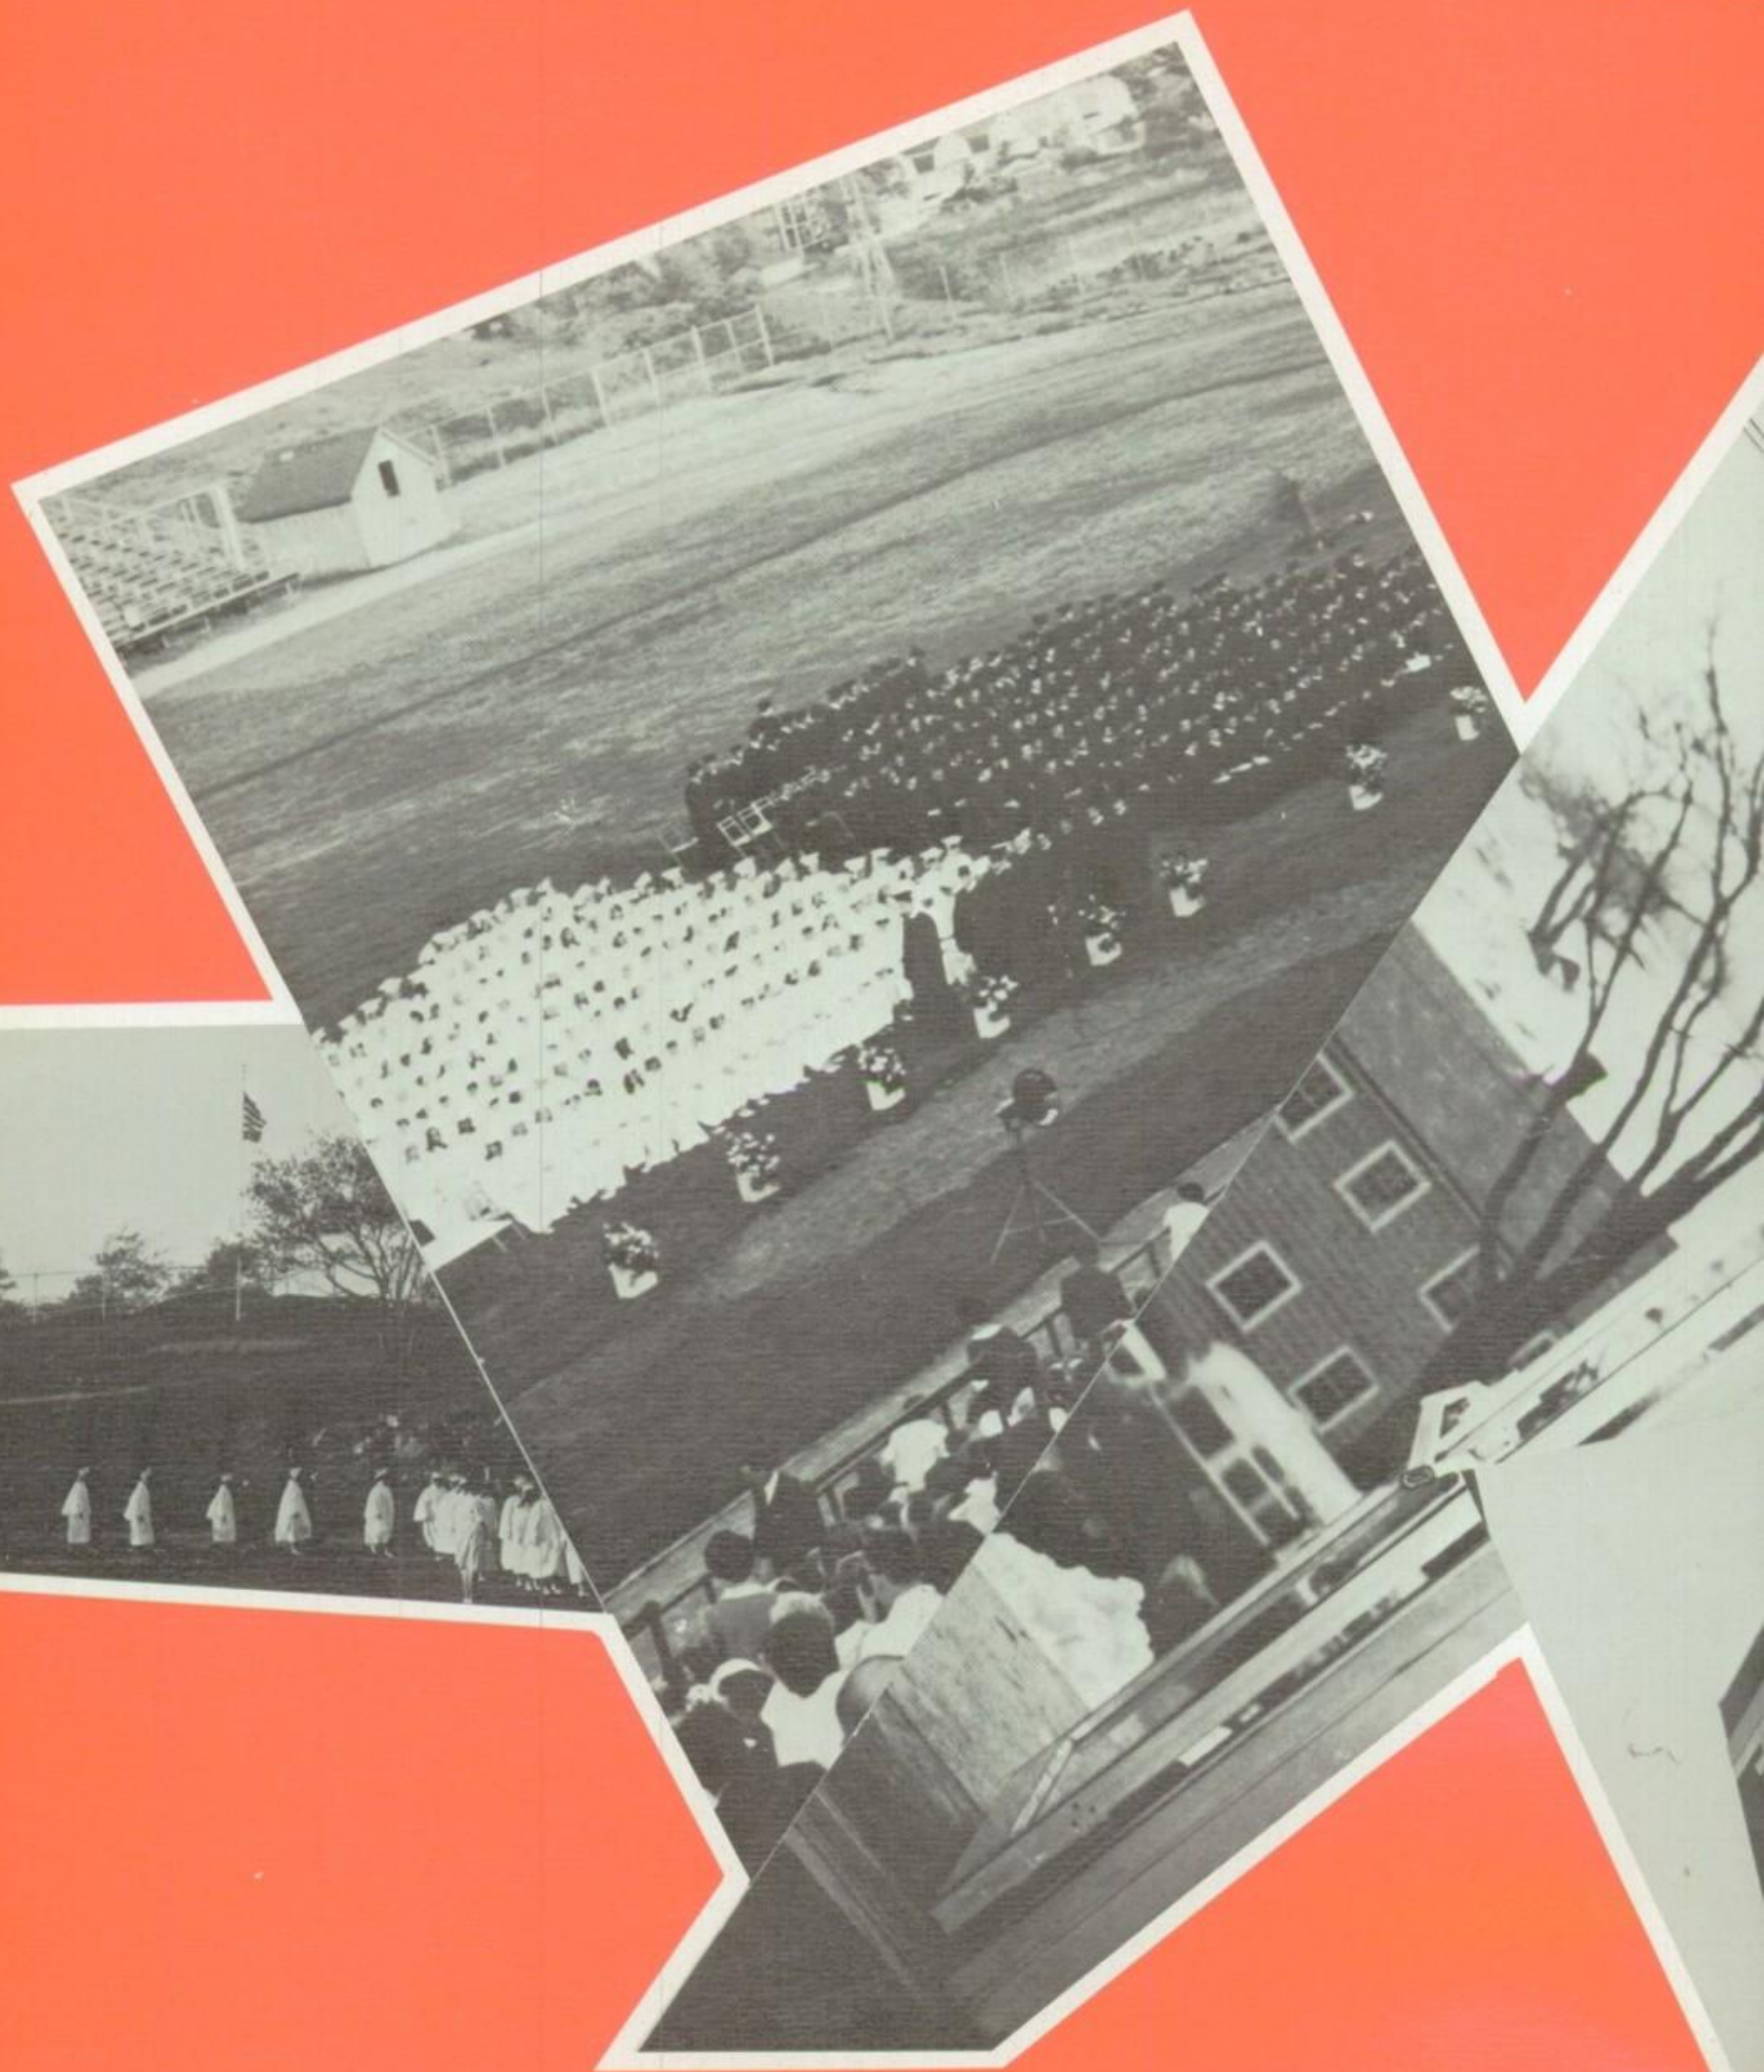

As the year came to an end, every junior looked forward to the events and plans of the following senior year, though never forgetting those as a first year upperclassman.

NOMA SOCIETY

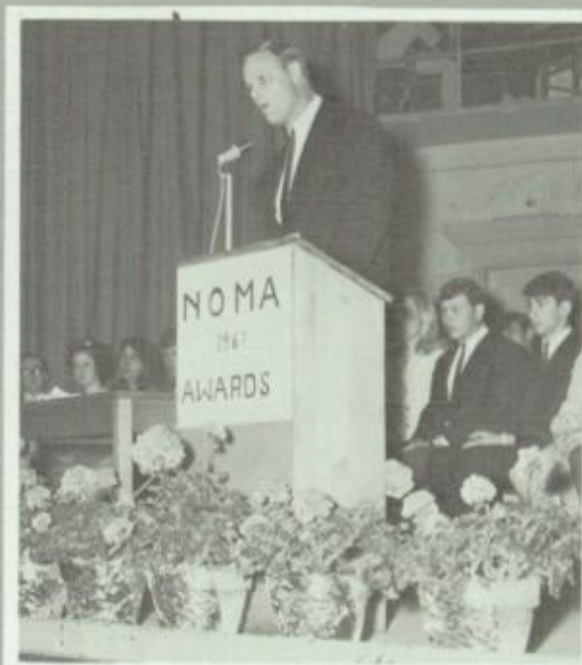

The Noma Assembly

The NOMA Assembly is a highlight event for the Commercial Seniors. Honored are the students who have passed the National Office Management Association Examinations from Washington, D.C. This year, the Class of 1967 had more high ranking NOMA students than any other graduation class. Nineteen students received superior certificates, having achieved a grade of over 95%.

Congratulations to the students, their teachers, and Mr. Sidney Galper.

Honor Society

The National Honor Society was founded in 1922 to recognize scholastic achievement and to encourage students to develop qualities of leadership, character, and service. This year fifty-two students were elected to this society in recognition of the achievements they have already made, and for the promise they contain for continued excellence.

Graduation — 1967

June 9, 1967, a Friday evening and a milestone in our lives—our Graduation. It marked the climax and the end to our four years as students at Salem High School. It also marked the beginning of the future . . . It was a perfect night. Best of luck in all your endeavors.

"We're making memories"—the theme of our Reception, perhaps the theme, too, of our class. This was probably the last time we will have been together as a class. There was soft music and a certain enchantment. It was a beautiful ending. Thank you for the memories . . .

I wonder
Where this door leads.
Perhaps to dreams
Perhaps to wishes,
Perhaps to a long hall,
Or a small room
Filled with opportunities.
Perhaps to yet another door—
I know not.
Still, my heart replies,
"I wonder."
